

in2 MUSIC - OUR PICKS

'Both Sides Now' - Naturally 7
Naturally 7's seventh studio album sees tracks driven by warm, rich harmonies and the unique ability to perform a variety of instruments using only their voices, something they have become synonymous with. The R'n'B/soul acapella group recently appeared on Later With Jools Holland and have toured with Michael Bublé, playing 467 shows to over 4 million people in 25 countries.

'Rose & Thorn' - Wendy Bevan
Wendy Bevan's own take on cold wave inspired electronica has seen her compared to the likes of Depeche Mode, The Knife, and Siouxsie Sioux. This, her debut album sees her vocals accompanied by glimmers of dark, pulsing electronic synths, minimalist post-punk basslines and featuring live strings from the Balanescu Quartet. An artist who continues to mesmerize, inspire and bewilder audiences!
